

*Be the Best that you can be!
Be independent, creative and persevere!*

Pen-y-Fai Church in Wales Primary School

Privacy Notice for Pupils and Parents

How We Use Parent, Carer and Pupil Information

A new law

Since May 2018, there is a new law called the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). It gives you more control over your information. It makes sure anyone collecting information has to:

- Be honest about why they want it
- Be clear about what they will do with it

Schools collect information about pupils and their parents/carers/families and share the information with the relevant local authority, Welsh Government and other statutory authorities.

The categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, date of birth, unique pupil number and address)
- Relationships (such as names of parents/carers and any other relatives or contacts that are provided to the school) and contact details
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, first language, nationality, country of birth, religion and free school meal eligibility)
- The pupil's level of fluency in the Welsh language and how this has been assessed/provided
- Medical conditions / information (such as allergies)
- Disability status
- School history
- Registration status and full-time or part-time status
- Information on additional learning needs
- Information on whether the pupil is in the care of the local authority
- Information on whether the pupil is receiving support from other agencies
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- Educational attainment and assessments
- Any issues or problems arising at school and actions taken in response (such as behavioural issues, exclusions etc.)
- Counselling information/records
- Financial information (such as school meal balance)
- Photographic images, video and audio recordings which may include CCTV footage.

Why we collect and use this information

We use the pupil data:

- to support pupil learning

Be Honest, Show Respect, Act with Kindness and Spread Joy

Be the Best that you can be!
Be independent, creative and persevere!

- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to assess the quality of our services
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing
- to safeguard pupils

The categories of parent information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name and address)
- Contact Details including telephone numbers, place of work and email addresses
- Contact details of relatives that may include names, addresses, telephone numbers and relationship with child
- Legal access to the child and any court orders indicating access rights
- Social Service involvement with families.
- Information relating to whether a parent is a member of the armed forces.

Why we collect and use this information

We use the parent data:

- To be able to contact you in relation to the pupil's educational provision, and also in the case of urgency.
- In order to engage services from other organisations, such as the Local Authority.

The lawful basis on which we use this information

From the 25th May 2018 the Data Protection Act 1998 was replaced by the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The condition for processing under the GDPR will be:

Processing pupil, parental and carer information is necessary for the school to undertake its statutory responsibilities. This type of activity is called 'in the public interest' and allows us to perform specific tasks where the school is exercising official authority, laid down by law.

Where the school does not have a statutory basis for collecting and processing the data, the school will request your explicit consent to gather and process the information and you will always have the opportunity to opt out of this process. However, in these circumstances, opting out may prevent the activity taking place (e.g. school trip)

Collecting pupil information

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing pupil data

We hold pupil data in line with the guidance set out in the Retention Schedule contained within the IRMS Toolkit for Schools.

- The education record of all pupils will be processed and retained until the pupil leaves the school.
- For the purposes of inspection by Estyn, some records are retained.

Be Honest, Show Respect, Act with Kindness and Spread Joy

Be the Best that you can be!
Be independent, creative and persevere!

- On some occasions, the school has a legal responsibility to retain information for future access. e.g safeguarding and wellbeing.

Following the retention period expiry, information will be destroyed securely and permanently.

Who we share pupil information with

We share pupil information with:

- The Welsh Government *
- Bridgend Local Authority *
- Other Local Authorities *
- The Central South Consortia *
- Schools that the pupils attend
- Safeguarding Boards
- Companies that undertake analysis of performance data
- Children and Family Wellbeing Services
- Hospital Trusts
- IT Services such as the Welsh HWB Learning platform (requires consent)
- School to Parent Communication Services
- Employment and career advice organisations
- Police or other law enforcement agencies
- Health and Safety Executive
- Private sector and voluntary organisations where they provide services for the school.

For Privacy Notice information relating to the identified * organisations, we refer you to their websites

Why we share pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share pupils' data with the Welsh Government and the Local Authority through the Central South Consortium on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our pupils with our local authority (LA) and the Welsh Government under the Education Wales Act 2014 and associated regulations for testing, assessment and other statutory duties.

Vital Interest Information

In circumstances of the wellbeing and safeguarding of the child, it may be necessary to share information without your consent or knowledge.

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, parents and pupils have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, or

Be Honest, Show Respect, Act with Kindness and Spread Joy

Be the Best that you can be!
Be independent, creative and persevere!

be given access to your child's educational record, please make your request in writing to the school, including your contact details and we will contact you.

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) gives you important rights:-

1. The right to be informed
2. How you can access your information
3. Ensuring your information is accurate
4. Making sure your information is deleted in an appropriate timeframe
5. Ensuring that your information is only used for the purposes for which it was gathered
6. Ensuring that your information is transferred in an agreed and secure format when your child move educational establishment
7. In certain circumstances the right to object

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations
- If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

Rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling

The school uses a wide range of data regarding pupils in order to provide support and guidance pertinent to their needs. This process is not solely automated and the parent will always have the opportunity to provide additional information. E.g during open evenings or IEP reviews.

Contact

If you would like to discuss anything in this privacy notice, please contact admin.penyfai@bridgend.gov.uk

01656 815930

Be Honest, Show Respect, Act with Kindness and Spread Joy